

VENEZUELA

900168A 9" Table Lamp

The Venezuela convertible pendant light features a gold-colored shade made from slender wires that curl down around an exposed bulb (not included). This artistic design creates a captivating interplay of light and shadow, adding depth and warmth to any space. The bold contrast of the black canopy and fittings introduces a modern edge, making this statement fixture a perfect complement to contemporary interiors. With its adaptable design, this fixture includes two canopies, letting you choose between a pendant installation or a flush mount to suit your space. Whether placed above a dining table, kitchen island, living space or hallway, this multi-functional light brings a touch of sophistication and charm to your space.
